Commandant-General to whom the Commandant-General may delegate such of his powers as he may consider necessary for supervision, control and training of the Home Guards.

(3) The State Government shall also appoint a Commandant for the Home Guards in each district.

Appointment of members.

3. (1) Subject to the approval of the Commandant-General, the Commandant may appoint as members of the Home Guards within his jurisdiction such number of persons, who are fit and willing to serve, as may from time to time be determined by the State Government and may appoint any such member to any office of command in the Home Guards.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) the Commandant-General may appoint any such member to any such office as aforesaid under his control.

Calling out a member of the force.

4. (1) The Commandant-General or the Commandant within the district under his jurisdiction may, subject to the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3), call upon any member of the Home Guards for training or for discharging any function assigned to him by or under this Act.

(2) The District Magistrate or subject to his control the Superintendent of Police, may at any time call upon the District Commandant in such circumstances and in such manner as may be prescribed, to mobilise any Unit within the district or a detachment of such Unit under his jurisdiction for the purpose of maintenance of law and order.

(3) Whenever the services of any such Unit or detachment are requisitioned under sub-section (2) the requisitioning authority shall communicate the action taken by it to such authority as may be prescribed by rules made in that behalf.

Powers, privileges
and protection of the force.

5. (1) A member of the Home Guards when called out under section 4 shall have the same powers, privileges and protection as an officer of Police appointed under any law for the time being in force.

(Secs. 6-8)

(2) No prosecution shall be instituted against a member of the Home Guards in respect of anything done or purporting to be done by him in the discharge of his functions or duties as such member except with the previous sanction of the Commandant-General.

6. The members of the Home Guards when called out under section 4 in aid of the Police Force shall exercise such powers and shall be under the control of the Officers of the Police Force in such manner and to such extent as may be prescribed by rules made under this Act.

Control by Officers of Police Force.

7. (1) Every person who for any reason ceases to be a member of the Home Guards shall forthwith deliver up to the Commandant or to such person and at such places as the Commandant may direct, his certificate of appointment or of office and the arms, accoutrements, clothing and other necessaries furnished to him as such member.

of the Home Guards under his control and shall further have the authority to dismiss any member of the Home Guards on the ground of conduct which has led to his conviction for an offence involving moral turpitude.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act the Commandant shall have the authority to discharge any member of the Home Guards at any time subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by rules made under this Act, if in the opinion of the Commandant the services of such member are no longer required and the Commandant-General shall have the like authority in respect of any member of the Home Guards under his control.

(3) When the Commandant-General or the Commandant passes an order suspending, reducing in rank, fining or dismissing any member of the Home Guards under sub-section (1) he shall record such order with the reasons therefor and a note of the enquiry in writing and no such order shall be passed by the said Commandant or Commandant-General unless the person concerned has been given an opportunity of being heard in his defence.

(4) Any member of the Home Guards aggrieved by an order of the Commandant or Commandant-General made under sub-section (1) may appeal against such order to the State Government or such authority as may be prescribed by rules made in that behalf within thirty days of the date on which he was served with notice of such order and the State Government or the authority, as the case may be, after hearing the appellant may pass such orders as may be considered fit.

(5) The Commandant-General or the State Government may at any time call for an examination of the record of any order passed by the Commandant under sub-section (1) for the purpose of satisfying themselves as to the legality or propriety of such order and pass such order as he or they think fit.

(6) Every order, if no appeal is preferred therefrom as hereinbefore provided, and every order passed in appeal or revision under this section shall be final.

(Sec. 9)

5 of 1898 (7) Any fine imposed under this section may be recovered in the manner provided by the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 as if such fine were imposed by a Court.

(8) Any punishment inflicted on a member of the Home Guards under this section shall be in addition to the punishment to which such member is liable under sub-section (1) of section 9 or any other law for the time being in force.

9. (1) If any member of the Home Guards, ^{Award of Punishment} on being called out under section 4, without reasonable excuse neglects or refuses to obey such order, or to discharge his functions as a member of the Home Guards or to obey any lawful order or direction given to him for the performance of his duties he shall, on conviction, be punishable with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to two hundred and fifty rupees, or with both.

(2) If any member of the Home Guards wilfully neglects or refuses to deliver his certificate of appointment or office or any other article in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 7, he shall, on conviction, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month, or with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, or with both.

(3) No proceedings shall be instituted under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) without the previous sanction of the Commandant-General.

(4) A Police Officer may arrest without warrant any person who commits an offence punishable under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2).

(Secs. 10-12)

Rules

10. (1) The State Government may make rules* for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely :—

- (a) the exercise by any Officer of the Home Guards of the powers conferred by section 4 on the Commandant and Commandant-General ;
- (b) the exercise of control by officers of the Police Force over members of the Home Guards when acting in aid of the Police Force ;
