(2) Where the ¹[State] Government makes any order under sub-section (1), it may use or deal with the property in such manner as may appear to it to be expedient.

Power to acquire requisitioned property.

3. (1) The ¹[State] Government may at any time acquire any movable property requisitioned by it under section 2 by serving on the owner thereof, or, where the owner is not readily traceable or the ownership is in dispute, by publishing in the Official Gazette, a notice stating that the said authority has decided to acquire it in pursuance of this section.

(2) Where a notice of acquisition is served on the owner of the property or published in the Official Gazette under sub-section (1) then at the beginning of the day on which the notice is so served or published the property shall vest in the ¹[State] Government free from all encumbrances and the period of requisition thereof shall end.

Payment of compensation.

4. The owner of any moveable property requisitioned or acquired under this Act shall be paid such compensation as the ¹[State] Government may determine.

Release from requisition.

5. (1) Where any property requisitioned under section 2 is to be released from requisition, the ¹[State] Government may after making such inquiry, if any, as it considers necessary, specify by order in writing the person to whom possession of the property shall be given.

(2) The delivery of possession of the property to the person specified in an order made under sub-section (1) shall be a full discharge of the Government from all liability in respect of such delivery, but shall not prejudice any rights in respect of the property which any other person may be entitled by due process of law to enforce against the person to whom possession of the property is so delivered.

(3) Where the person to whom possession of any property is to be given cannot be found and has no agent
