MENTS (NATIONAL AND FESTIVAL HOLIDAYS AND CASUAL AND SICK LEAVE)

(f) any gratuity payable on the termination of employment.

National and festival holidays.

3. (1) Every worker shall, in each calendar year be allowed in such manner and on such conditions as may be prescribed—

(a) three national holidays of one whole day each on the 26th January, 15th August and 2nd October, and

(b) four other holidays on any of the festivals specified in the schedule appended to this Act :

Provided that for purposes of clause (b), where at least ten per centem of the workers of an industrial establishment so desire, they may, in lieu of the festival holidays, avail of two half holidays on any of the festival days of their choice specified in such Schedule after settlement in this behalf has been made between the employer and the representative of the workers in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) The Government may by notification add to the Schedule appended to this Act any festival, and thereupon the Schedule shall be deemed to be amended accordingly.

Casual and sick leave.

4. Every worker shall in each calendar year, be allowed by the employer casual leave for seven days and sick leave for fourteen days in such manner and on such conditions as may be prescribed.

Explanation.—For purposes of this section, such conditions may provide that one kind of leave shall not be linked with another kind of leave, whether due under this Act, or under any other law for the time being in force.

Wages.

5. Notwithstanding any contract to the contrary, every worker shall, for each of the national and festival holidays and of the days of casual or sick leave, be paid by the employer wages at a rate equivalent to his average daily wage :

CASUAL AND SICK LEAVE)

Provided that—

- (a) no worker shall be entitled to be paid such wages for any holiday or leave, other than a national holiday, if his name was not on the rolls of the industrial establishment continuously for a period of one month immediately preceding such holiday or leave;
- (b) where a worker is entitled to sickness benefit under the Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948, or sickness allowance under the Plantations Labour Act, 1951, he shall not be entitled to be paid such wages for the days of sick leave allowed to him under this Act; and
- (c) where a worker is not entitled to such sickness benefit or sickness allowance, he shall be paid wages for the days of sick leave allowed to him under this Act at a rate equivalent to one-half of his average daily wage.

(2) Where a worker works on any holiday allowed under section 3, he shall, at his option, be entitled to—

- (a) twice his average daily wage for that day, or
- (b) his average daily wage for that day and a substituted holiday with his average daily wage on any other day within ninety days from the day on which he so works.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, the average daily wage of a worker shall be computed on the basis of his total full-time wages during the
