Construction of references to laws not in force in any region.

Construction of references to authorities.

4. Any reference in any Act specified in the Schedule to a law which is not in force in any region of the State shall in relation to that region, be construed as a reference to the corresponding law, if any, in force in that region.

5. (1) Any reference in any Act specified in the Schedule to any authority not in existence in any other region of the State shall, in relation to that region, have reference to such authority as the State Government may, by notification, specify as the corresponding authority.

(2) Any reference, by whatever form of words, in any law for the time being in force in any region of the State to any authority competent at the date of the passing of that law to exercise any powers or discharge any functions in that region shall, where a corresponding new authority has been constituted by or under any Act now extended to that region, have effect as if it were a reference to that new authority.

Repeal and savings.

6. (1) If immediately before the appointed day, there is in force in any region of the State any law corresponding to any of the Acts now extended to that region, that law shall, save as otherwise expressly provided in the Act, stand repealed :

Provided that the repeal shall not affect—

- (a) the previous operation of any law so repealed or any thing duly done or suffered thereunder; or
- (b) any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under any law so repealed; or
- (c) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any law so repealed; or
- (d) any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid; and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced, and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if this Act had not been passed:

Provided further that, subject to the preceding proviso, anything done or any action taken (including any appointment or delegation made, notification, order, instruction or direction issued, rule, regulation, form, byelaw or scheme framed, certificate obtained, patent, permit or licence granted or registration effected) under any such law shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provision of the Act as now extended to that region, and shall continue to be in force accordingly, unless and until superseded by anything done or any action taken under the said Act.

(2) For avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that nothing in sub-section (1) shall affect the continuance in force of the Madhya Bharat Towns Improvement Act, 1956 (2 of 1956) with respect to the towns of Gwalior, Indore, Rat'am, Ujjain and Neemuch.

Power to remove difficulties.

7. (1) If in consequence of anything contained in this Act, any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of any Act specified in the Schedule, the State Government may, by order notified in the Official Gazette, make such provisions or give such directions as appear to be necessary for the removal of the difficulty.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, any such notified order may—

- (a) specify the corresponding authorities within the meaning of section 5;
- (b) provide for the transfer of any matter pending before any court, tribunal or other authority, immediately before the appointed day, to any corresponding court, tribunal or other authority for disposal;
- (c) specify the areas or circumstances in which, or the extent to which or the conditions subject to which anything done or any action taken (including any of the matters specified in the second proviso to section 6) under any law repealed by that section shall be recognised or given effect to under the corresponding provision of the Act as now extended.

After section 89, insert—

“89-A. Acquisition of the right of supply through an existing private water-course.—(1) Any permanent holder of irrigable or wet land desiring to have the right of supply of water through a private water-course of another person passing through or by the side of or within easy reach of such land may apply to the Collector.

(2) If the applicant undertakes to defray all costs involved in acquiring such right and to share the expenses made by the owner in the construction of the water-course, the Collector shall serve a notice on the owner to show cause why the right should not be granted.

(3) If the owner of the water-course raises no objection, the Collector may declare the applicant to be the joint holder of the water-course on such conditions as to the payment of cost, compensation or otherwise as may appear to him equitable.

89-B. Construction of a private water-course.—(1) Subject to rules made under the Act, a permanent holder of irrigable or wet land in a village or chak may construct on his land a private water-course.

(2) Every permanent holder desiring to construct a private water-course shall, before undertaking the construction thereof, make an application in writing to the Executive Engineer clearly disclosing therein the details of the proposed water-course including its alignment, the land which is sought to be irrigated and such other particulars as may be prescribed.

(3) On receipt of the application, the Executive Engineer shall, after making or causing to be made such enquiry, as he deems fit, lay down the specification for the construction of the private water-course and give such other directions in relation thereto as he may consider necessary.

(4) Every private water-course shall be constructed in accordance with the specifications and directions given under sub-section (3).

(5) No private water-course shall be used for the supply of water from a canal for irrigation purposes unless it has been constructed in accordance with the specifications and directions given under sub-section (3).

89-C. Occasional supply of water through private watercourse.—(1) Any permanent holder or occupier in a wet or irrigable area may apply to the Executive Engineer for supply of water from a canal.

(2) If it appears expedient that such supply should be given and that it should be conveyed through an existing private water-course, the Executive Engineer shall give notice to owner of the water-course to show cause on a day not more than 14 days from the date of such notice why the said supply should not be so conveyed.

(3) On the day fixed, the Executive Engineer shall after hearing the owner if present and making such enquiry, as he thinks fit, determine whether and on what conditions the said supply should be conveyed through the water-course.

(4) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Executive Engineer under sub-section (3), may, before the expiry of thirty days from such decision, prefer an appeal to the Superintending Engineer and subject to the result of such appeal, if any, the decision of the Executive Engineer shall be final.

(5) Such applicant shall not be entitled to use the water-course until he has paid the cost of any alteration of the water-course required for making the supply available through it and such charges for use of the water-course as the Executive Engineer may determine.

(6) The applicant shall also be liable to maintain the water-course so long as he uses it.

89-D. Obligation of person owning or using private water-course.—(1) Every permanent holder owning or using private water-course, shall—

(a) construct and maintain to the satisfaction of the Executive Engineer all works which, in the opinion of the Executive Engineer, are required for the passage of water or traffic across the aforesaid private watercourse or of water-course existing previous to its construction and of drainage intercepted by such private water-course, and for affording proper communication across it for the convenience of the neighbouring lands ;

- (b) maintain the water-course in proper repair so long as it is in an area under an agreement or in a compulsorily assessed area; and
- (c) allow its use in the manner and to the extent provided by section 89-C.

(2) If at any time the Executive Engineer considers in respect of a water-course referred to in sub-section (1) that the works mentioned in clause (a) of that sub-section have not been constructed or maintained or that the water-course is not in proper repair as required by clause (b) thereof—

- (a) he may, by a notice served upon the persons liable under sub-section (1) require that the construction or repairs be made to his satisfaction on or before a specified date; and
- (b) if the construction or repairs are not made to his satisfaction by such date, he may stop the supply of water to the water-course; or
- (c) he may cause the construction and repairs to be made and may collect a sum not exceeding twice the cost thereof from the permanent holders owning or using the water-course in proportion to the areas held by them in the land which is ordinarily irrigated through the water-course.

89-E. Application of sections 89-A to 89-D.— Provisions of sections 89-A, 89-B, 89-C and 89-D shall, in the first instance, apply to the Madhya Bharat and the Vindhya Pradesh regions, and the State Government may, from time to time, by notification extend their application to such other areas as it may deem fit.”

Section 91.—After clause (d), insert—

“(e) the circumstances in which and the conditions subject to which applications under section 89-B may be made.”
