In the case Nripendranath Goswami v. Registrar, Gauhati University, [AIR 1967 A & N 5], their Lordships after considering the provisions of Ss. 11 and 13 (a) held that it is Executive Council which has got the power to cancel the degree of a student or to take disciplinary action. But when the order of cancellation of the degree and punishment awarded to a student affect his further career in life, in such circumstances it is all the more incumbent on the authorities to give an opportunity to the student to explain his conduct and from the very nature of the circumstances under which such a power can be exercised, it must be inferred that there is a duty cast upon the University to act judicially. It is well settled that in an enquiry resulting in penal consequences affecting the future career of a student, the principles of natural justice have to be observed [Naren Das v. The Gauhati University, ALR (1973) Gau 49].
