7. Where a business is owned, managed or run by a firm, the firm and each of the partners of the firm shall jointly and severally be liable to pay tax Under this Act:

Provided that where any partner retires from the firm he shall be liable to pay the tax, penalty, interest or any other amount payable under this Act remaining unpaid at the time of his retirement; and any tax due up to the date of his retirement, even if assessment of tax, or levy of penalty or Interest is made at a later date.

Certain provisions of Vat Act to apply.

8. Subject to the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder, the provisions of the Vat Act and the rules made, order and notifications issued thereunder, including the provisions relating, to returns, assessment, self-assessment, reassessment, payment and recovery of tax, accounts, detection and prevention of tax evasion, refund, appeal, revision, rectification, offences and penalties and other miscellaneous matter, shall mutatis mutandis apply to a hotelier or proprietor in respect of tax, interest or penalty levied and payable under this Act as if these provisions were mutatis mutandis incorporated in this Act, and it shall be deemed that the rules made and orders and notifications issued under those provisions were mutatis mutandis made or issued under the relevant provisions as so incorporated in this Act.

Assessment Collection, etc. of tax.

9. Subject to the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder, the administration of this Act in so far as it relates to levy, assessment and collection of tax from hoteliers or proprietors shall vest in the authorities specified in the Vat Act and accordingly the authorities for the time being empowered to assess, reassess, collect and enforce the payment of tax under the Vat Act shall assess, reassess, collect and enforce the payment of tax including interest or penalty payable by a hotelier or a proprietor under this Act as if the tax including interest or penalty payable by such hotelier or proprietor under this Act or under the provisions of the Vat Act as made applicable under section 8 to hoteliers or proprietors in relation to tax levied under this Act is a tax or interest or penalty payable under that Act and for this purpose they may exercise all or any of the powers conferred upon them by or under that Act.

Registration.

10. (1) Every hotelier or proprietor liable to pay tax under this Act shall obtain registration certificate from the appropriate Commercial Tax Officer or any other officer authorised by the Commissioner in this behalf in such manner and form as may be prescribed.

(2) Every hotelier or proprietor required to obtain a registration certificate shall within sixty days from the date of commencement of this Act or if he was not carrying on business on that date shall within thirty days of his becoming liable to pay tax, apply for grant of a registration certificate.

(3) Where a hotelier or proprietor required to obtain a registration certificate under sub-section (1) fails to apply for the same within the time specified in sub-section (2), the appropriate Commercial Tax Officer or any other officer authorised by the Commissioner in this behalf may, after giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard, direct him to pay by way of penalty a sum not exceeding five thousand rupees, subject to a minimum of five hundred rupees.

(4) A registration certificate granted on application made within the period specified in sub-section (2) shall be valid from the date of liability. A registration certificate granted on an application made after such period shall be valid from the date of application.

(5) Every hotelier who at the commencement of this Act holds a registration certificate under the provisions of the Act repealed by this Act shall, on such commencement, be deemed for all purposes of this Act to be a hotelier registered and holding a registration certificate under this section.

(6) The provisions of section 17 of the Vat Act and the rules made thereunder so far as they relate to the amendment and cancellation of registration certificates granted under Vat Act shall mutatis mutandis apply to the registration certificates granted under this section.

Power to exempt.

11. The state Government may, by notification, and subject to such restrictions and conditions as may be specified therein exempt whether prospectively or retrospectively in whole or in part any hotelier / proprietor or class of hoteliers / proprietor from the payment of tax under this Act.

Saving.

12. Notwithstanding the repeal of the Madhya Pradesh Hotel Tatha Vas Grihon Me Vilas Vastuon Par Kar Adhinyam, 1988 (No. 13 of 1988) and the Madhya Pradesh Entertainments Duty and Advertisements Tax Act, 1936 (No. 30 of 1936) (hereinafter referred to as the repealed Acts), the State Government may, by notification, exempt any hotelier / proprietor or class of hoteliers / proprietors from the payment of tax under the repealed Acts for any period before the commencement of this Act and for that purpose it shall and shall always be deemed that the provisions of section 9 of Act No. 13 of 1988 or Section 7 of the Act No. 30 of 1936 have revived for the purpose of such exemption.

Pwer to make rules.

13. (1) The State Government may make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, the State Government may make rules, prescribing—

- (a) the manner and form in which registration certificate shall be obtained under sub-section (1) of section 10;
- (b) the form in which the returns shall be filed;
- (c) the form and the manner in which and the period before which tax shall be paid;
- (d) the form in which the order of assessment shall be passed;

(e) the form in which notice of demand shall be issued.

(3) All rules made under this section shall be laid on the table of the Legislative Assembly.

Bar on imposition of entertainment tax by any local authority.

14. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other enactment for the time being in force, no local authority shall on or after the date of coming into force of this Act impose or recover a tax on or in respect of any entertainment with respect to period falling after such date.

(2) The State Government shall pay to every local authority, which before the coming into force of this Act had imposed a tax or duty in respect of entertainments, an annual grant-in-aid for such period and in accordance with such principles as may be prescribed in this behalf.

(3) Nothing in this section shall apply to the imposition of a show tax leviable by a local authority under any law for the time being in force.

Explanation.—For purposes of this section “show tax” means a tax leviable on the proprietor of an entertainment in the form of a fixed sum for each show or performance.

Repeal and savings.

15. The Madhya Pradesh Hotel Tatha Vas Grihon Me Vilas Vastuon Par Kar Adhinyam, 1988 (No. 13 of 1988) and the Madhya Pradesh Entertainments Duty and Advertisements Tax Act, 1936 (No. 30 of 1936) shall stand repealed on the date of coming into force of this Act:

Provided that—

- (i) such repeal shall not –
 - (a) affect the previous operation of the Act No. 13 of 1988 and Act No. 30 of 1936 (hereinafter referred to as repealed Acts) so repealed or anything duly done or suffered thereunder; or
 - (b) affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under the repealed Acts; or

(c) Affect any penalty forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against the repealed Acts; or

(d) After any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability; and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed, as if this Act had not been passed and the said Acts had not been repealed.

(ii) Unless it is otherwise expressly provided, anything done or any action taken (including any appointment, notification, notice, order, rule, form, regulation or certificate) in the exercise of any power conferred by or under the repealed Acts shall, subject to the provisions of sub-clause (b) of clause (i), in so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, continue to be in force and be deemed to have been done or taken in the exercise of the powers conferred by or under the provisions of this Act as if this Act were in force on the date on which such thing was done or action was taken unless and until it is superseded by or under this Act may be recovered as if they had accrued under this Act.

(iii) Any assessment, appeal, revision or other proceedings arising under the repealed Acts and the rules made thereunder and / or pending before an officer or authority duly empowered to make assessment or hear and decide such appeal, revision or other proceeding immediately preceding the commencement of this Act shall, on the date of such commencement stand transferred to the officer or authority competent to make assessment or to hear and decide appeal or revision or other proceedings under this Act and thereupon such assessment, shall be made or such appeal or revision or other proceeding shall be heard and decided within the period, if any specified therefor, by such officer or authority in accordance with the provisions of the repealed Acts or the rules made thereunder as if they were the officer or authority duly empowered for the purpose under the repealed Acts.

- (iv) Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (i), any appeal, revision or other proceedings arising under the repealed Acts but preferred or initiated after the commencement of this Act, shall be heard and decided by the authority competent to entertain any appeal, revision or any other proceedings in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Power to remove difficulties.

16. If any doubt or difficulty arises in giving effect to any of the provisions of this Act in consequence of the transition to the said provisions from the corresponding provisions of the Acts repealed by Section 15, the State Government may within two years from the date of commencement of this Act by order notified in the official Gazette of the State make such provision not inconsistent with this Act as appear to be necessary or expedient for removing the doubt or difficulty.
