CHAPTER II- DETERMINATION OF STANDARD AREAS AND TREATMENT OF FRAGMENTS

3. The '[State] Government may, after such inquiry as it deems fit, specify any estate or sub-division of an estate as a notified area for the purposes of this Chapter of this Act.

Determination of notified area.

4. (1) The '[State] Government may, after such inquiry as it deems fit provisionally settle for any class of land in any notified area the minimum area that can be cultivated profitably as a separate plot.

Settlement of standard.

(2) The '[State] Government shall by notification and in such other manner as may be prescribed publish the minimum areas provisionally settled by it under sub-section (1) and invite objections thereto.

1. Substituted for the word "Provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

Determination
and revision of standard areas.

5. (1) The [State] Government shall, after considering the objections, if any, received within three months of the date of publication of the notification under sub-section (2) of section 4 in the estate concerned and making such further inquiry as it may deem fit, determine the standard area for each class of land in such notified area.

(2) The [State] Government may, at any time, if it deems fit expedient so, to do, revise a standard area determined under sub-section (1) such revision shall be made in the manner laid down in section 4 and sub-section (1) of Section 5.

(3) The [State] Government shall, by notification and in such other manners may be prescribed, give public notice of any standard area determined under sub-section (1) or revised under sub-section (2).

Entry in the record of rights

6. (1) On notification of standard area under sub-section (3) of section 5 for a local area all fragments in the local area shall be entered as such in the record-of-rights.

(2) Notice of every entry made under sub-section (1) shall be given in the prescribed manner.

Transfer and lease of fragments.

7. (1) No person shall transfer any fragment in respect of which a notice has been given under sub-section (2) of section 6 unless thereby the fragment becomes merged in a contiguous survey number or recognised sub-division of a survey number.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887, no such fragment shall be leased to any person other than a person cultivating any land which is contiguous to the fragment.

Fragmentation prohibited.

8. No land in any notified area shall be transferred or partitioned so as to create a fragment.

Penalty for transfer or partition contrary to provisions of Act.

9. The transfer or partition of any land contrary to the provisions of this Act, shall be void.

Valuation of fragment.

10. Any owner of a fragment who intends to sell it shall make an application in this behalf to the Collector for determination of its market price and the Collector shall, after hearing the applicant and owners of the contiguous survey numbers or recognised sub-divisions of survey numbers determine the market price, and such determination shall be final and conclusive for the purposes of this chapter.

1. Substituted for the word "Provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

11. The owner referred to in the preceding section shall in the first instance offer the fragment for sale to the owners of contiguous survey numbers or recognised sub-divisions of survey numbers, and in case of their refusal to preceding section, may transfer it to the ¹[Government] for the purpose of ²[State] on payment by the ¹[Government] of such price as aforesaid to persons possessing interest therein as the Collector may determine, and thereupon the fragment shall vest absolutely in the ¹[Government] for the purpose of the ²[State] free from all encumbrances.

Transfer of
fragment.

12. When a decree is transferred to the Collector under section 54 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, for the partition of an undivided estate assessed to payment of revenue to the ¹[Government] in any notified area for which standard areas have been fixed, or for the separate possession of a share of such an estate, no such partition or separation shall be made so as to create a fragment.

Partition of estate assessed to payment of revenue to Government or separation of share thereof.

13. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force no land shall be acquired by the ³[State] Government or any local authority or sold at any sale held under the orders of any court so as to leave a fragment.

State Government or local authority not to acquire land so as to leave fragments.

(2) If any land acquired by the ³[State] Government or any local authority is in excess of its requirements, it shall be offered for sale in the first instance to the owners of contiguous survey numbers or recognised sub-divisions of survey numbers at price at which it was acquired under sub-section (1).

CHAPTER III — CONSOLIDATION OF HOLDINGS

14. (1) With the object of consolidating holdings in any estate or group of estates or any part thereof for purpose of better cultivation of lands therein, the ³[State] Government may of its own motion or on application made in this behalf declare by notification and by publication in the prescribed manner in the estate or estates concerned its intention to make a scheme for the consolidation of holdings in such estate or estates or part thereof as may be specified.

Government may of its own accord or on application declare its intention to make scheme for consolidation of holdings.

(2) On such publication in the estate concerned the ⁴[State] Government may appoint a Consolidation Officer who shall after obtaining in the prescribed manner the advice of the landowners of the Occupancy Tenancies.

16. (1) The scheme prepared by the Consolidation Officer may provide for the distribution of land held under occupancy tenure between the tenants holding a right of occupancy and his landlord in such proportion as may be agreed upon between the parties.

(2) When the scheme is ⁴[confirmed] under section 20, the land so allotted to the occupancy tenant and the landlord shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887, or in any other law for the time being in force, be held by each of them respectively in full right of ownership, and the right of occupancy in the land allotted to the landlord shall be deemed to be extinguished.

1. Inserted by East Punjab Holdings (Consolidation and Prevention of Fragmentation) (Amendment and Validation) Act, 1955 [Punjab Act, 7 of 1955] Section 3 of Punjab Act, 7 of 1955, reads thus :—

“Validation of certain proceedings :— No Scheme of consolidation under the East Punjab Holdings (Consolidation and Prevention of Fragmentation) Act, 1948, shall be deemed to be invalid merely on the ground that the advice of non-proprietors and Gram Panchayats was not so obtained during any Consolidation proceedings before the commencement of this Act.”

2. New sub-section (3) added by Punjab Act No. 15 of 1959, section 2.

3. Sub-section (2) of section 15 omitted by Punjab Act No. 23 of 1950

4. Substituted for the words “finally sanctioned” by Punjab Act 25 of 1962.

¹[16-A (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in Chapter 9 of the Punjab Land Revenue Act, 1887, except section 17, thereof, the scheme prepared by the Consolidation Officer may provide for the partition of land between joint-owners of land, or between, joint-tenants of a tenancy in which a right of occupancy subsists, in accordance with the share of each owner or tenant in the land or tenancy, as the case may be, if —

Power to make provision in the scheme to partition joint lands and joint occupancy tenancies.

- (a) such share is recorded under Chapter 4 of that Act as belonging to him, or
- (b) the right of such owner or tenant to such share has been established by a decree which is still subsisting at the time of preparing the scheme, or
- (c) a written acknowledgment of such right has been executed by all persons interested in the admission or denial thereof.

(2) When the scheme is ²[x] confirmed under section 20, the land so partitioned shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law for the time being in force, be held by each such owner or tenant in full right of ownership or tenancy, as the case may be and the rights of other joint-owners or joint tenants, in the land shall be deemed to be extinguished.]

17. (1) Whenever in preparing scheme for the consolidation of holdings, it appears to the Consolidation Officer that it is necessary to amalgamate any road, street, lane, path, channel, drain, tank, pasture or other land reserved for common purposes with any holding in the scheme he shall make a declaration to that effect stating in such declaration that it is proposed that the right of the public as well as of all individuals in or over the said road, street, lane, path, channel, drain, tank, pasture or other land reserved for common purposes, shall be extinguished or, as the case may be, transferred to a new road, street, lane, path, channel, drain, tank, pasture or other land reserved for common purposes laid out in the scheme of consolidation.

Amalgamation of public roads etc. within scheme for consolidation of holdings.

(2) The declaration in sub-section (1) shall be published in the estate concerned in prescribed manner along with the draft scheme referred to in section 19.

1. New section 16A, inserted by Punjab Act No. 20 of 1959.

2. The word "finally" omitted by Punjab Act No. 25 of 1962.

(3) Any member of the public or any person having any interest or right, in addition to the right of public highway, in or over the said road, street, lane, path, channel, drain, tank, pasture or other land reserved for common purposes or having any other interest or right which is likely to be adversely affected by the proposal may within thirty days after the publication of the declaration under sub-section(1) state to the Consolidation Officer in writing his objection to the proposal, the nature of such interest or right and the manner in which it is likely to be adversely affected and the amount and particular of his claim to compensation for such interest or right :

Provided that no claim for compensation on account of the extinction or diminution of the right of public highway over such road, street, lane, path, channel, drain, tank, pasture or other land reserved for common purposes, shall be entertained.

(4) The Consolidation Officer shall, after considering the objection, if any, made to the proposal, submit it with such amendments, if any, as he may consider necessary to the Settlement Officer (Consolidation), together with the objections received, his recommendations thereon and a statement of the amounts of compensation, if any, which in his opinion are payable, and of the persons by whom and of the persons to whom such compensation is payable. The decision of the Settlement Officer (Consolidation), on the proposal and regarding the amount of compensation and the person by whom such compensation, if any, is payable, shall be final.

Land reserved for common purposes.

¹⁸ Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, it shall be lawful for the Consolidation Officer to direct—

1. Section 6 of Punjab Act No. 27 of 1960, reads as follows :—

Validation :— Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any judgment decree or order of any court,—

- (a) Wherein any scheme, made before the commencement of this Act, land has been reserved for the panchayat of the village concerned for utilising the income thereof, or
- (b) where before such commencement the State Government or any authority to whom it has delegated its powers has passed an order under section 42 of the principal Act revising or rescinding a scheme prepared or confirmed or repartition made by any officer under that Act, such reservation of land or such order, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be valid and any such scheme or order shall not be questioned on the ground that such reservation of land could not be made or, as the case may be, that under section 42 of the principal Act, the State Government or such authority had no power to pass such order.

- (a) that any land specifically assigned for any common purpose shall cease to be so assigned and to assign any other land in its place;
- (b) that any land under the bed of a stream or torrent flowing through or from the Siwalik mountain range within the ¹[State] shall be assigned for any common purpose;
- (c) that if any area under consolidation no land is reserved for any common purpose including extension of the village abadi, or if the land so reserved is inadequate, to assign other land for such purpose.

19. (1) When the draft scheme of consolidation is ready for publication, the Consolidation Officer shall publish it in the prescribed manner in the estate or estates concerned. Any person likely to be affected by such scheme, shall, within thirty days of the date of such publication, communicate in writing to the Consolidation Officer any objection relating to the scheme. The Consolidation Officer shall, after considering the objection, if any, received, submit the scheme with such amendments as he considers to be necessary, together with his remarks on the objections, to the Settlement Officer (Consolidation). Publication of draft scheme.

²(2) x x x x x x

20. (1) The ³[State] Government may by notification appoint one or more persons to be Settlement Officers (Consolidation) and, by like notification, specify the area in which each such officer shall have jurisdiction. The Consolidation Officers in the area under the jurisdiction of the Settlement Officer (Consolidation) shall be subordinate to him subject to any conditions which may be prescribed. Confirmation of scheme.

⁴(2) If no objections are received to the draft scheme published under sub-section (1) of section 19 ⁵[x] and also if no written or oral objections to "[the draft scheme]" are received under sub-section (3) by the Settlement Officer (Consolidation), he shall confirm the scheme.

1. Substituted for the word "Province" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

6. Substituted for the words "any such scheme" by Punjab Act 25 of 1962.

¹(3) If any objections are received to the draft scheme published under sub-section (1) of section 19 ²[xxx] or if any written or oral objection are received by the Settlement Officer (Consolidation) before the confirmation of ³[the draft scheme] by him the Settlement Officer (Consolidation) may after taking the objections into consideration together with the remark thereon of the Consolidation Officer and also after considering the written or oral objection, either confirm the scheme with or without modifications, or refuse to confirm it. In case of such refusal, the Settlement Officer (Consolidation) shall return the draft scheme, with such direction as may be necessary, to the Consolidation Officer, for reconsideration and resubmission.]

(4) Upon the confirmation of the scheme under sub-section (2) or (3), the scheme as confirmed shall be published in the prescribed manner in the estate or estates concerned.

Repartition.

21. (1) The Consolidation Officer shall after obtaining the advice of the landowners of the estate or estates concerned, carry out repartition in accordance with the scheme of consolidation of holdings confirmed under section 20, and the boundaries of the holdings as demarcated shall be shown on the shajra which shall be published in the prescribed manner in the estate or estates concerned.

(2) Any person aggrieved by the repartition may file a written objection within fifteen days of the publication before the Consolidation Officer who shall after hearing the objection pass such orders as he considers proper confirming or modifying the repartition.

(3) Any person aggrieved by the order of the Consolidation Officer under sub-section (2) may within one month of that order file an appeal before the Settlement Officer (Consolidation) who shall after hearing the appellant pass such order as he considers proper.

⁴(4) Any person aggrieved by the order of the Settlement Officer (Consolidation) under sub-section (3), whether made before or after the commencement of the East Punjab Holdings (Consolidation
